

Profile of Robert L. Dennison

Brief profile :

Assistant Chief of Naval Operations, 1945-1947
 Commander, USS Missouri (battleship), 1947-1948
 Naval Aide to the President, 1948-1953

Personal Papers : Robert L. Dennison Papers

Oral History : Robert L. Dennison

Online Photos: Dennison photos

Biographical sketch :

1901 (April 13)	Born, Warren, Pennsylvania
1923	B.S., United States Naval Academy
1930	M.S., Pennsylvania State College
1935	D. Eng., Johns Hopkins University
1935	Commander, USS Ortolan (submarine rescue vessel)
1937-1938	Commander, USS Cuttlefish (submarine)
1940-1941	Commander, USS John D. Ford (destroyer)
1944-1945	Member, Joint War Plans Committee, Joint Chiefs of Staff
1945-1947	Assistant Chief of Naval Operations
1947-1948	Commander, USS Missouri (battleship)
1948-1953	Naval Aide to the President
1956-1958	Commander, First Fleet, U.S. Pacific Fleet
1959	Promoted to rank of Admiral
1959-1960	Commander in Chief, U.S. Naval Forces, Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean
1960-1963	Supreme Allied Commander, Atlantic
1963-1973	Executive, Copley Newspapers
1980 (March 14)	Died, Bethesda Naval Hospital, Washington, D.C.

Other links :

Robert L. Dennison White House Files
 Naval Aide to the President Files